

2017 SOUTH CAROLINA VICTIM ASSISTANCE ADVANCED ACADEMY

Sponsored by the State Office of Victim Assistance

Save the Date

South Carolina Victim Assistance Advanced Academy

Free two-day Victim Assistance Advanced Academy - VSP hours pending

October 25 - 26, 2017

Greenville Police Department Training Center and Range
688 Mauldin Road
Greenville, South Carolina 29607

Registration Deadline is Sept. 1, 2017

Seating is limited to 30 participants

Participants must attend the entire two days to receive full credit

Acceptance is based on:

- Working in Victim Service Field a minimum of 2 Years
 - Good standing with OVSEC (Certification Required)
 - Recommendation letter from supervisor
 - Personal challenge letter from applicant
 - No more than three participants per agency
 - If you attended prior two academies, your application may not be considered
 - Approved application by SOVA
-

The Academy will focus on:

- Enhancing quality of service
 - Learning best practices
 - Building strong partnerships and networking
 - Roundtable discussion on difficult compensation claims to SOVA
(Please bring an actual case scenario for the Academy "Participant's Roundtable Discussion" session.)
-

Lodging is the attendee's responsibility. Parking is free.

For additional information and the application, visit <http://scvaa.sova.sc.gov>.

SOVA contact information:

Ethel Douglas Ford, CPM – (803) 734-1704, ethel.ford@admin.sc.gov
Genita L. Snipes, CPM – (803) 734-1706, genita.snipes@admin.sc.gov

PROMOTING

EXCELLENCE

IN SERVICE

TO CRIME VICTIMS